學院政策

什麼是性騷擾?

作出令人厭惡的性挑逗,提出性要求,及作出言語上、非言語上或動作上不受歡迎而涉及性的行徑, 皆屬性騷擾。

在決定某行為是否屬於性騷擾時,該行為的全部具體情形皆會列入考慮範圍。

Dealing with Sexual Harassment

處理性騷擾指引

CPCE Policy

The College of Professional and Continuing Education (CPCE) is committed to equal opportunity in academic pursuit and employment and to eliminating any form of discrimination against all staff, students, and other persons who have dealings with the CPCE. Sexual harassment, being a form of discrimination, is prohibited and is unacceptable at all levels in the CPCE community. Any staff member or student who is found to have contravened the CPCE's Policy will be subject to disciplinary action.

What is Sexual Harassment?

Sexual advances, requests for sexual favours, and other verbal, non-verbal, or physical conduct of a sexual nature constitute sexual harassment if they are unwelcome.

In determining whether conduct constitutes sexual harassment, a totality of circumstances of the conduct will be considered.

Examples of Sexual Harassment***

Depending on the circumstances, the following may constitute sexual harassment:

- Repeated attempts to make a date, despite being told "NO" each time
- Comments with sexual innuendoes and suggestive or insulting sounds
- Relentless humour and jokes about sex or gender in general
- Sexual propositions or other pressure for sex
- Implied or overt threats for sex (e.g. demanding sexual favours in exchange for a promotion or a passing grade in examination)
- Obscene gestures or inappropriate touching (e.g. patting, touching, kissing or pinching)
- Persistent phone calls or letters asking for a personal or sexual relationship
- Displaying sexually obscene or suggestive photographs or literature
- Sexual assault or forced sexual intercourse (rape)
- * Examples are taken from the pamphlet "Preventing & Dealing with Sexual Harassment" issued by the Equal Opportunities Commission.

What can you do if you feel sexually harassed?

- Let the harasser know that his/her conduct is unwelcome, unacceptable and has to stop immediately. Do not try to ignore it because the harasser may misinterpret no response as approval of the conduct.
- Keep a record of the incidents, including dates, time, places, presence of any witnesses, the conduct of the harasser, as well as your responses and feelings.
- Request an adviser for initial advice concerning the procedures which may be followed for resolving claims concerning sexual harassment. You may contact the Officer-in-charge of the Unit/Office in which you are employed, or of the Unit offering the programme on which you are registered in if you are a student. Alternatively, you may select an adviser from the "approved list" accessible through the relevant section of the CPCE Intranet.
- You may request the appointment of a conciliator who will provide you with advice or support, or assist you in resolving the claim by conciliation.
- If conciliation fails to resolve the claim, or if you feel that only a formal complaint can solve the problem, you may make a formal complaint to the Chairman of the Grievances and Appeals Committee in the case of complaint against staff member or the Student Discipline Committee in the case of complaint against student.
