Overview of College of Professional and Continuing Education

College of Professional and Continuing Education (CPCE), founded in 2002 by The Hong Kong Polytechnic University (PolyU), focuses on the provision of high quality self-financed programmes at the post-secondary level through its two educational units, namely Hong Kong Community College (HKCC) and School of Professional Education and Executive Development (SPEED). HKCC offers quality sub-degree programmes that meet the changing needs of society and prepare its students for further studies or career development, while SPEED provides quality articulation degree programmes that answer a wide range of career and professional aspirations.
